SEYMOUR IN EIU HOMECOMING PLAY

CHARLESTON, IL--Jeremy J. H. Seymour, son of Steve and Cindy Seymour of Effingham, appeared in Eastern Illinois University's recent Homecoming play, "HAVER'S HOLLER, W.V."

This original musical was written by two collaborating faculty members of Eastern's new College of Arts and Humanities, Marjorie A. Duehmig of the theatre arts department and Henry Butler of the music department.

Seymour played the roles of Judge Otis Smiley, Granpa Kates, Buddy Perkins, and Dick Abbott in this production about changing the cycle of how you live.

Seymour is a sophomore majoring in theatre at Eastern. He is a 1992 graduate of Effingham High School.

Eastern, located in Charleston, places its highest priority on teaching in its classrooms and laboratories, supplemented by strong academic services.
